Artefatta presents Phaedra Theffo's new website

www.phaedratheffo.it

Artefatta presents Phaedra Theffo's new website, completely dedicated to the sporting activity of the French-Belgian rider living in Italy and racing in the 125cc class.

A website full of customized backgrounds and colours, where you can find any information on the current season or the past ones and subscribe to the newsletter in order to be regularly informed on the last racing news.

All the pictures, classifications, a full press review, a space dedicated to the partners and many links to the friend's websites.

During the 2008 season, Lulù, administratively part of the Lucky Racing Team, will race with the Team Pit Lane from Modena, Italy, on a 125cc Aprilia (Sport Production).

Go and visit her website at the following address: www.phaedratheffo.it.

Phaedra Theffo: "I was very impressed. The design of the website is fantastic. There are really great colours and graphical effects. Artefatta showed to be a very serious agency and everybody will be able to notice that people working there has a really big experience. I really want to thank them all for the work they made".
